From the Grand Province Advisor

Grand Province Advisor Walter Jenny, OΦ38, announced that Mohammed Taibai, EΣ 707, is the UCO recipient of the first Apollo Scholarship, created by the Grand Province Advisor for Tekes at UCO and Northeastern State in Tahlequah and funded by your donations.

At the Founders' Day/RCB banquet, Frater Mike Lawter, EΣ 230, was inducted into the Oklahoma TKE Hall of Fame. Kendall Kelton EΣ 645 received the inaugural Mickey Toller Memorial Award as outstanding Provincial alumni volunteer. RCB was dedicated to Jon Tankersley, EΣ 90. The undergraduate chapter named John Walker, EΣ 584, top alumnus.

UCO undergraduate Frater Nate Raddatz EΣ 680 received the National Charles Walgreen scholarship, the second largest scholarship behind the Ronald Reagan scholarship.

Directory available

We have updated the Epsilon Sigma directory and found addresses and phone numbers for more than 150 lost Fraters. Go to www.tekehouse.com to view or download the updated directory. Look over the list of lost Fraters, email us any information you have that can help us track them down. There are still about 160 truly lost Fraters.

Then go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/esigmatke>, put your email on the list and plunge into the ongoing discussions, which lately have revolved around cakes with Exlax icing and where and how many homes the Tekes have had at UCO.

We'd like to know what you're doing and what you'd like to see your Alumni Association doing for you. Meanwhile, here's the latest on some of our Fraters:

Epsilon Sigma Spotlight

Epsilon Sigma Alumni Association
University of Central Oklahoma, Spring 2005

House grand opening Sept. 3

The grand opening celebration of the new TKE House is scheduled for Labor Day weekend.

This will be the most significant event since Epsilon Sigma was chartered and we sincerely hope that every Frater on the scroll and every friend of Epsilon Sigma will attend. Mark your calendars now and look for details to follow.

Most likely there will be a Friday evening reception, an open house and cookout Saturday, followed by the BIG EVENT Saturday evening. We'll wrap things up with a Sunday brunch. All events will be family friendly.

There has been some recent discussion as to the number and location of TKE houses in Epsilon Sigma's history.

There was the beloved Tiltin' Hilton, the funeral home, the house rented from a doctor and another at University and First. The house under construction is either the fifth or sixth. If you have old photos or remember specific TKE House addresses we'd like to know.

Construction workers recently found marble stepstones at the house, which according to legend were appropriated from the State Capitol when it was undergoing renovation. There also is rumor of a time capsule under the flag pole.

If you know any of the deep dark secrets of 303 E. Ayers it's time to let them out, as the house either will be razed or sold and moved when construction is complete. Despite the excitement the new home brings, we will be saying goodbye to a faithful old friend with many fond memories.

The new TKE House, under construction at 303 E. Ayers soon will be the home for 16 undergraduate Fraters who can start settling in this August. The house next door on left, where Tekes have made history for 25 years, is scheduled for demolition or sale and removal.

ΕΣΑΑ dues needed

Your alumni association needs your support. We don't ask for much and last year we didn't ask at all. As an active member of the alumni association, your minimum dues of $25 help pay for newsletters and other mailings, and provide a resource to help undergraduate members attend educational conferences and other activities as approved by the ESAA officers. We could do more to help the undergraduates and have a stronger alumni association if we had more financial support.

Please do your part and remain an active member, or become one. Fill out the attached form and mail with your check today.
